OLD NORTH
Central's oldest building, Old North stands as an iconic symbol of the University. After 16 years of renovations, Old North was reopened in 2017 with state of the art, transformative learning classrooms.

MAX CHAMBERS LIBRARY
The library is a hub of research and resources on campus. Here, you'll find computer labs, study areas, 3-D printers, and a recording studio.

WELLNESS CENTER
Find resources to stay fit and focused. Take a fitness class, join an intramural team, scale the climbing wall, or when you don’t feel your best, visit the OU Physicians Clinic at UCO.

SPORTS PERFORMANCE CENTER
This hybrid facility serves Central's student-athletes with study halls, a classroom, computer lab, and 129 seat theater. Athletes also have access to an enormous athletic training area that includes a nutrition center and two hydro-therapy pools.

BAUSHER PLACE
Home to Ayer's Kitchen, UCO's newest eatery, Bausher Place also includes offices for Transportation and Parking Services, and Housing and Residential Engagement.

CENTER FOR TRANSFORMATIVE LEARNING
Opened in 2010, the CTL fosters collaborative learning through innovative design of classrooms and common spaces with state of the art technology. Check out the outdoor classroom on the east side!

DONALD BETZ STEM RESEARCH AND LEARNING CENTER
This building serves as an interdisciplinary hub for the university's various science, technology, engineering, and mathematics programs, including biology, chemistry, engineering, forensic science and nursing.

FORENSIC SCIENCE INSTITUTE
This building houses Central's nationally-known Forensic Science program. It is located across the street from the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, allowing for beneficial partnerships.

NIGH UNIVERSITY CENTER
The central hub of campus is home to admissions and enrollment, UCO Barnes & Noble Bookstore, Starbucks, 8 dining options, as well as Student Engagement, Leadership Central, and financial aid offices.

CO-OP ESPORTS AND GAMING CENTER
UCO entered the realm of collegiate esports in 2018 with a competitive esports club comprised of more than 350 members, credit-bearing courses in esports and the development of a gaming arena.

WEST HALL
Due to its record as the building with the highest GPA, West Hall is also home to a segment of the Living Learning Communities program. The Leadership Community and the Life Sciences Community make use of the collaborative nature of the hall in their bid to grow the leaders and educators of tomorrow.

Located in the heart of campus, residents are closer to campus activities, classes, and diverse food offerings. With opportunities to get engaged inside and outside the halls, residents are encouraged to create connections with peers and community members who will help them succeed beyond their time at Central.

MURDAUGH HALL
Opened in 1937, Murdaugh Hall lies in the heart of campus and brings the history of Central to life for the residents that live there each year.

UNIVERSITY SUITES
University Suites offers a suite-style living option for students seeking more privacy without sacrificing vital community connections.

THE QUAD
Home to the Living Learning Communities, residents are immersed in a learning experience that transcends the traditional classroom setting and expands students’ perspectives of their relationships with self, others, community, and environment.

UNIVERSITY COMMONS
Central’s apartment style hall provides the most occupant privacy and independence, while still offering the on-campus living experience.

ABOUT CENTRAL
With strong connections throughout the Oklahoma City metro, the University of Central Oklahoma is dedicated to developing in students the confidence to succeed through transformative learning experiences. Central prides itself as a smart investment for success, preparing future leaders in an opportunity-rich environment with access to more than 200 student organizations and the internship, employment, entertainment and cultural offerings of the rapidly growing Oklahoma City metropolitan area. Founded in 1890 and accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Central connects its nearly 15,000 students to unmatched value found in 122 undergraduate areas of study and 78 graduate programs from its main campus in Edmond and facilities throughout the metro area.
