

Basic Course Scholarship (CIET CAMP)

Basic Course scholarships are two-year scholarships and require attendance at the Cadet Initial Entry Training Course (CIET) the summer between the academic sophomore and junior year. A conditional contract must be signed prior to attending CIET signifying the individual is interested in a career as an Army officer, the contract will not become binding until the individual returns to school for the junior year and takes an oath from the professor of Military Science.

You must be enrolled in a ROTC class prior to attending CIET.

Scholarships pays:

- Full tuition and mandatory fees
- A $1200 per academic year book allowance
- A stipend
 - $350/month for sophomores
 - $450/month for juniors
 - $500/month for seniors
- Must pass the Basic Physical Fitness Test (BPFT) with 50 points per event and within three percent of Army HT/WT Factors prior to attending LTC.

Applications are always being accepted. If you are interested in applying, contact the Army ROTC enrollment officer John Taylor at (405) 974-5166.

Eligibility Criteria

- U.S. Citizen.
- At least 17 years old and must not reach 31 years of age before December 31 of the year you graduate from college and receive your commission
- Have a minimum college GPA of 2.5
- Have no moral or personal conviction that will prevent you from:
 - Bearing arms
 - Supporting and defending the Constitution of the United States

Receive a waiver for any arrest or civil conviction (if applicable)

Although medical qualification is not required to be eligible to receive a scholarship offer, medical qualification is required in order to receive the scholarship benefits.

To receive the scholarship benefits you must also agree to accept a commission and serve in the Army on Active Duty or in a Reserve Component (Army National Guard, or U.S. Army Reserve) upon graduation and receipt of your commission.

For more information please contact the recruiting officer at UCO's Army ROTC Program, (405) 974-5166/5167 or email us at ArmyROTC@uco.edu.