PRE-OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

Occupational therapy is therapy based on performing the meaningful activities of daily life (self-care skills, education, work, or social interaction), especially to enable or enhance participation in such activities despite impairments or limitations in physical or mental functioning. Occupational therapy is for individuals of all ages to improve skills that help them perform daily tasks at home and at school, at work and at play. Occupational therapy practitioners are skilled professionals. Their education includes the study of human growth and development, with specific emphasis on their “occupations” of living. Occupational therapy practitioners are unique in that they look at the whole picture when it comes to a person’s treatment—the individual’s abilities, the task to be performed, and the environment in which the task takes place.

Salary: According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the national average salaries for Occupational Therapists is around $80,000.
