About UCO Accelerated Degree Pathways (ADP):

Qualifying current UCO undergraduate students seeking an Accelerated Degree Pathway (ADP) must abide by the policies and procedures outlined within the Graduate Catalog. Accelerated pathways are only available in approved bachelor's and master's degree programs. For a list of approved pathways, see the list below as well as the associated catalog degree sheets. ADP students may take a maximum of ten (10) graduate credit hours (i.e. 5000-level courses) before their undergraduate degree has been awarded. These ten graduate credit hours taken by the ADP student must align with the approved ADP courses as outlined on the graduate degree sheet that is associated with the approved ADP program as outlined in the UCO Graduate Catalog. These ten (10) graduate credit hours taken will count as credit on both the undergraduate and graduate transcripts of the ADP student as long as the student maintains continuous enrollment and the grades received in the courses align with graduation policies and requirements issued by the University of Central Oklahoma.
