The University Commons is located on the northwest side of campus, close to the Max Chambers Library and the Wellness Center and offers the independence of apartment-style living on the UCO campus. It is the ideal location for graduate students and students 21 and older looking for a different kind of living experience.

Choose between a two-bedroom or four-bedroom option, each with single, private bedrooms and two bathrooms in the unit. All apartments in the Commons feature individually controlled heat and air, a fully-equipped kitchen and laundry room. Live minutes from class and enjoy your own secure space.

Also available to Commons residents is the basketball and sand-pit volleyball courts located in the joint courtyard between the Commons and the Suites.
